"Zhang Lianxi: Paradox"

2007.8.18 - 9.9

Long March Independent Space, Beijing

This video recorded the small ordinary lives around us. By filming them, I reflected the conflict between the human being and the tiny ordinary lives, also the evil actions done by mankind and the consequence. But I found the whole process of filming is like a self-mockery and a paradox. Therefore, I could not tell the good and evil, maybe all the happenings are just for the matter of "existence".
